Thank you for considering our tenth annual production sale. I think you will find this to be our finest yet as I have consigned our very best.

Each year I try to use this letter as my annual forum to give thanks and discuss something important to me. While this year has been highlighted by my retirement from the wealth management industry that has blessed my family and made this production sale possible, the biggest takeaway from my 28 year career with various Wall Street firms has been the opportunity to work with and learn from some of the most successful families in the country, many of which are likely reading this. Thanks to all of you who gave me a chance all those years ago.

This year I do want to focus on the folks who helped my son Will's once in a lifetime horse, Velvets Revolver, overcome his near death illness. Anyone who loves my family knows that we nearly lost Milhouse this summer after a bout of colitis he contracted while at the National High School Rodeo Finals in Gillette, Wyoming. After several weeks in ICU at CSU, there was nothing more they could do for him so we made a family trip to tell him goodbye. Hands down the most emotional week of my life, my forever friend Gary Rosenbach graciously offered to let us bring him to his beautiful ranch near CSU after one of my closest friends Michael Cooper alerted him. Gary sent his ranch manager down to pick him up for us and I met them at the ranch to give him what we thought were his last days of green grass and cool mountain air.

One day turned into five as I could tell that Mil wasn't ready to go, and each day he ate more grass and became more mobile. Thanks to so many of your prayers and God's grace, he has made a miraculous recovery and I am watching him graze as I write. There are too many folks to thank, but listed below are the first names that come to mind when I think of the kindness, grace and expertise they showed us during this time.

We will never know if it was the most beautiful prayer Tara said the night Milhouse was inducted into the NYCHA Hall of Fame this summer, or the snapchat that Missy Jean saw of Milhouse grazing that led to her calling me and insisting on trying a "fecal transfaunation", or if it was the care that Debra gave him treating him like one of her children for months on end. I believe it was all of the above, combined with the love of our NCHA family and it is yet another reminder that this is the greatest family sport there is. Thanks to each of you listed above and the dozens I am leaving out, no words can properly express our gratitude.

Happy Holidays,

Chad Bushaw
